PREFATORY NOTE.

As the "CONTENTS-SUBJECT INDEX" upon which I am engaged will soon be completed, I thought it might be advisable to call attention to it, and at the same time endeavour to be of service to those interested in the Transvaal by issuing an extract from the "Index" on this subject, together with a list of works devoted entirely to South Africa and the Transvaal. This latter list contains the titles of 148 works, while the references from the "CONTENTS-SUBJECT INDEX" number 230, and will, I trust, be of service as a literary guide to those who are interested in the present momentous and important crisis. Subject to limit of the number at my disposal, I shall be glad to forward a copy to anyone upon application with enclosure of one penny stamp for postage, etc.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF WEST HAM.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

HAND-LISTS

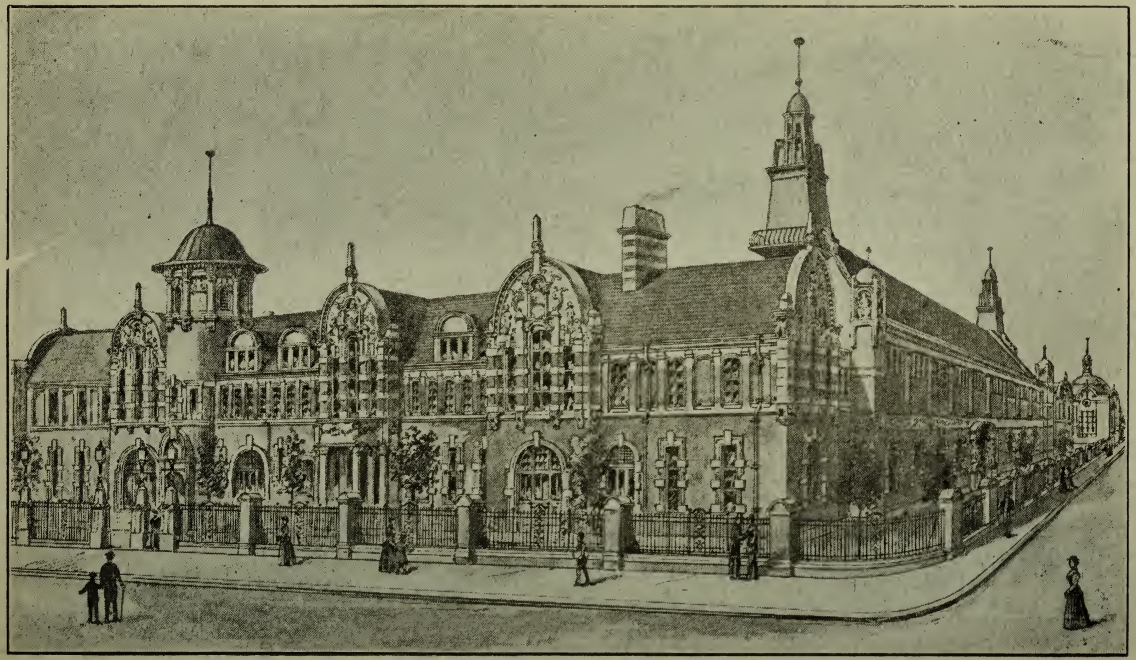
No. 6.—Books on London and Suburbs.

LONDON:
WEST HAM PUBLIC LIBRARIES,
STRATFORD, E.

1903.

CENTRAL PUBLIC LIBRARY AND TECHNICAL INSTITUTE.



Opened by Mr. J. PASSMORE EDWARDS, October 6th, 1898.

PREFATORY NOTE.

In compiling our sixth hand-list we have been influenced, in the first place, by the large number of West Ham residents who are employed in London or have interests of one kind or another in that great City; and in the second place, by the fact that we have, for a suburban library, a London collection of no mean dimensions, and which we consider worthy of a place among our other hand-lists.

Many of the entries are accompanied by descriptive notes, which we trust will be of service, and, speaking generally, we hope that the booklet will be found not only of interest to our own readers but also to persons outside of the Borough. The list contains the titles of 389 works, the total volumes being 972, and although we could have wished that our income would have enabled us to more completely represent the various notable districts and other features of the metropolis, we are fairly sanguine that to those on this side and not within reach of the large London Libraries, the publication of this hand-list will result in an even larger appreciation of our London collection in the future, than in the past.

The list is arranged in three divisions:—

1.—Special works under subjects.
2.—General works under authors.
3.—Supplement under subjects.

For articles relating to London in Periodicals, Magazines, and other works, readers are advised to consult Cotgreave's "Contents-Subject Index to General and Periodical Literature" and the "Review of Reviews Index to Periodicals."

In the preparation of this and other hand-lists we are indebted to Mr. C. Whitwell, our Sub-Librarian, for the able assistance he has rendered.

No. 7.

Selections of Works on, or relating to, the Fiscal Question.

Owing to the great interest exhibited at this time in the Fiscal Question, we have thought that a list of books dealing with the subject in all its bearings would be an appropriate subject for our Public Library Hand-List, No. 7. In addition to many books on the subject, we have also included articles from the leading Magazines and Reviews, which deal with the latest phases of the movement.
